

Early Nomination for Convention President

Nomination for CNBC president made by Gary Smith, senior pastor of Bow Valley Baptist Church, Cochrane, Alberta:

I would like to invite you to prayerfully consider electing Bo Neal to serve as the next president for the Canadian National Baptist Convention.

Bo is a man of high character. He has a passion for Jesus Christ and the advancement of His Kingdom. He was the founding pastor of Southwinds Church in south Calgary and has been its pastor now for several years. He was a student and a graduate of our Canadian Southern Baptist Seminary.

Bo loves his family. He has been married for eight years and has three beautiful children. He loves to invest in his wife and kids and to explore the great outdoors with them and his friends.

Bo has led The Community Life Network—a church planting network—to start two new CNBC churches in south Calgary. He has a passion for church planting and for seeing CNBC churches partner together to push back lostness in Canada. He is a trusted CNBC pastor and church planter and I am excited to bring his name forward for nomination as our next CNBC president.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration to have Bo serve in this significant role.
