

Through Cooperative Program Giving ...

You provide resources to strengthen churches.

You help support national and international career and student missionaries.

You support national and regional ministry leaders who help strengthen churches.

You support the CNBC Horizon.

You support disaster relief through Canadian Global Response.

You provide a new pastors' orientation to equip new pastors.

You support church planting in Canada.

You provide the annual Oasis weekend retreat for ministry couples.

You help support Canadian Southern Baptist Seminary & College.

You provide online equipping and training for church leaders across Canada.

You provide leadership training for churches and leaders.

The Cooperative Program (CP) is a unified offering through which our churches regularly give a percentage of their general offerings to support CNBC missions and ministries.

The CNBC distributes the offering to effectively share the love of Jesus Christ in Canada and around the world.

Individually we can only do so much but together we can reach much further.

THE VALUE OF THE COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

"I have always viewed the Cooperative Program as a greater way for our churches to participate in a bigger team and broader Kingdom effort. Over the years I have led my church to be generous in our missions giving and support of the Cooperative Program. It is exciting to know that we are making a difference in Canada and around the world. The only thing better than watching a good team is being on a good team. Through the CNBC we have a great opportunity to work together in partnership for the cause of Christ."

Shane Spannagel

Senior Pastor, Richmond Hill Baptist Church, Calgary, AB

"We view the Cooperative Program as our tithe. If we honour God with our missions giving, I believe God is going to take care of everything else."

We give because it's a way for our church to be involved in missions. We couldn't on our own support a missionary or multiple church plants. By working through CNBC, partnering with more than 400 other Canadian churches, we can do missions in a way we can be meaningful participants in God's work."

Pastor John Evans

Community Baptist Church, Charlottetown, PEI

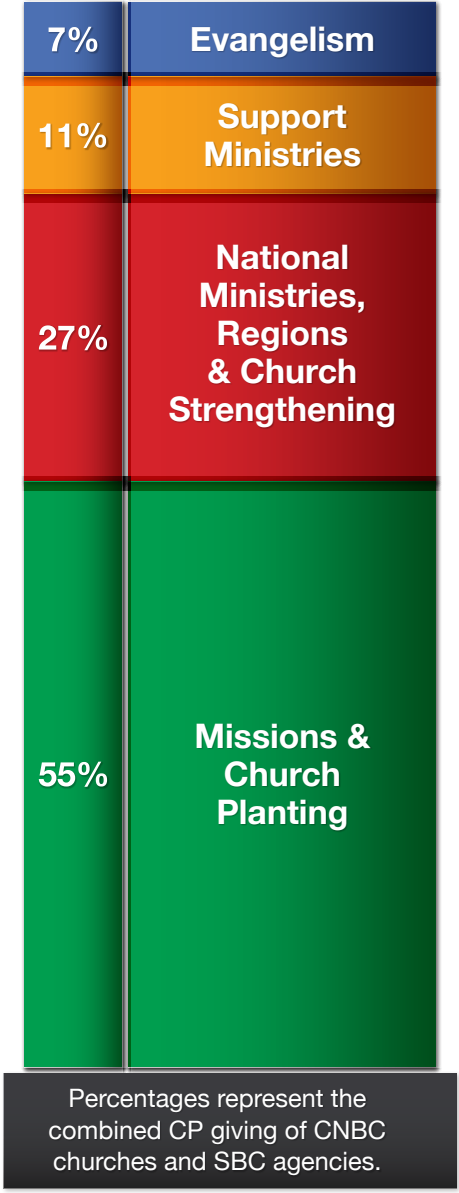

"As a church we are committed to helping people experience the Kingdom of Jesus in tangible ways, so we are excited to invest in the Cooperative Program. It gives us great joy to partner in this way and we thank God for the opportunity to live generously as a church."

As we give back to God, in response to His great love, we are making an investment in His Kingdom. Through the CP, people are encountering Jesus, churches are being planted and strengthened, missionaries are being sent to the nations, and lives are being transformed by the power of the Gospel."

Ryan Dawson

Lead Pastor, Sequoia Church, Ottawa, ON

Distribution of Cooperative Program

CP Cooperative Program

SUPPORT CNBC MISSIONS AND MINISTRIES