Prayer

This May is our 3rd annual Canada wide CNBC emphasis, Pray for the Harvest. Churches are encouraged to pray for the lost. The prayer calendar is available in 10 languages. On-line devotions are available in English and French. An addition this year is a 30-minute audio prayer guide and prayer walking resources.

My team is building a distribution list for prayer e-blasts to receive and distribute crisis prayer requests within our CNBC family.

Women's Ministry

A team of women from a partner church in Austin, Texas hosted a women's retreat in Alberta in February.

We connect with each new pastor's wife.

I have a focus for the fall of 2015 to equip women in leadership through regional networks, training events and the development of on-line resources.

Training and resources for churches:

We continue to communicate the availability of Transforming Communities grants through Cooperative Giving to help our churches with community outreach and summer VBS/sports camps.

Facilitating workshop: "Impacting Your Current Relationships with the Gospel" in our churches across Canada.

Resourcing churches with on-line resources, God Test booklets, 3 Circles: Life Conversation Guides and DVD evangelism training kits.

The TC volunteer team is growing. We now have people with passion volunteering to assist churches with many different ministry areas across Canada including:

Sports outreach, VBS, ESL and literacy, marginalized women, and the poor

Vacation Bible School

Our national VBS team under the leadership of Melanie Morgan attended training in January in preparation for leading regional training clinics across Canada this spring.

Last year hundreds of children attended VBS across Canada.

Challenges

- Resourcing and communicating with our language churches
- Populating TC area on CNBC website
- Developing and resourcing regional volunteer TC teams
- Connecting with new churches as they transition from CP to CNBC support network
- Encouraging ministry wives and women in ministry
